I. FUNDING OPPORTUNITY DESCRIPTION

A. Program Description

Applications for the Ovarian Cancer Research Program (OCRP) are being solicited by the Assistant Secretary of Defense for Health Affairs, Defense Health Program. Appropriations from the OCRP from FY97 through FY11 totaled $180.45 million (M). The FY12 appropriation is $16M. The overall goal of the FY12 OCRP is to eliminate ovarian cancer by supporting innovative, high-impact research.

B. Award Information

The OCRP Teal Innovator Award supports a visionary individual from any field principally outside of, but not exclusive of, ovarian cancer to focus his/her creativity, innovation, and leadership on ovarian cancer research. The Teal Innovator Award will provide the Principal Investigator (PI) with the funding and freedom to pursue his/her most novel, visionary, high-risk ideas that could significantly impact the field of ovarian cancer research or patient care. The proposed Teal Innovator must be highly recognized in his/her field and present evidence of this recognition. Examples include, but are not limited to, recognition at the level of endowed chair, membership in the National Academy of Sciences, National Academy of Engineering, Institute of Medicine, Chairmanship of American Association of Cancer Research, or other national or international recognition.

Since the intent of the Teal Innovator Award mechanism is to foster paradigm-shifting ideas in ovarian cancer research, the central feature of the award is the novel contribution that the PI will bring to the field and to the goal of eliminating ovarian cancer. As such, the PI is required to address his/her area(s) of focus and how he/she will use this award to apply his/her most creative vision to ovarian cancer research. The primary criteria for funding this award will be the PI's past record of creativity, the PI's promise for continued innovative thinking, and an indication of how this award will create paradigm-shifting ideas that will accelerate progress toward the elimination of ovarian cancer. In addition, the Teal Innovator must have demonstrated success in leading a research team and show that he/she is committed to investigating paradigm-shifting ideas in ovarian cancer.

Experience in ovarian cancer research is not required; however, the Teal Innovator Award must focus on ovarian cancer, and the PI must commit at least 25% of his/her full-time professional effort during this award to ovarian cancer research. The Teal Innovator Award recipient is required to do the following:

- Commit all funds from this award to ovarian cancer research.
- Articulate his/her percent commitment to this award.
- Articulate his/her percent commitment to ovarian cancer research (at least 25% of his/her effort).
- Demonstrate the passion and commitment of members of his/her research team to working on ovarian cancer research and significantly impacting the detection, diagnosis, prevention, treatment, and/or control of ovarian cancer.

- Mentor a designated junior scientist from his/her research team as an ovarian cancer researcher.
- Serve as an OCRP ambassador for the elimination of the disease. For example, participate in an ovarian cancer advocacy group and the ovarian cancer survivor and research communities; present at an ovarian cancer advocacy conference; present at a future OCRP's Ovarian Cancer Academy conference.

The Congressionally Directed Medical Research Programs (CDMRP) intends that data and research resources generated by CDMRP-funded research activities be made available to the research community (which includes both scientific and consumer advocacy communities) and to the public at large. For additional guidance, refer to the General Application Instructions, Appendix 4, Section K.

C. Eligibility Information

- The PI must be at or above the level of Professor (or equivalent) and be highly recognized in his/her field. Examples include, but are not limited to, recognition at the level of endowed chair; membership in the National Academy of Sciences, National Academy of Engineering, or Institute of Medicine; Chairmanship of American Association of Cancer Research; or other national or international recognition.
- Cost sharing/matching is not an eligibility requirement.
- Refer to the General Application Instructions, Appendix 1, for general eligibility information.

D. Funding

- The maximum period of performance is 5 years.
- The maximum allowable direct costs for the entire period of performance are $2.5M plus indirect costs.
- All direct and indirect costs of any subaward (subgrant or subcontract) must be included in the total direct costs of the primary award.
- The applicant may request the entire maximum funding amount for a project that may have a period of performance less than the maximum 5 years.
- Regardless of the period of performance proposed, the applicant may not exceed the maximum allowable direct costs. Indirect costs shall be proposed in accordance with the organization's negotiated rate agreement.

Refer to the General Application Instructions, Section II.C., for budget regulations and instructions for the Research & Related Budget. In addition, for this award mechanism, direct costs:

May be requested for (not all-inclusive):

- Salary
- Research supplies
- Research-related subject costs

- Training
- Workshops
- Support for collaborations
- Travel between collaborating organizations
- Travel costs of up to $3,600 per year to attend scientific/technical meetings for the PI and designated junior scientist
- Travel costs for attendance at the 3-day Ovarian Cancer Academy meeting along with the recipients of the Ovarian Cancer Academy and the Academy Dean Awards, and OCRP staff during Year 2 of this award

The CDMRP expects to allot approximately $3.5M of the $16M FY12 appropriation to fund approximately one Teal Innovator Award application, depending on the quality and number of applications received. Funding of applications received in response to this Program Announcement/Funding Opportunity is contingent upon the availability of Federal funds for this program.

II. SUBMISSION INFORMATION

Submission is a multi-step process requiring both (1) pre-application submission through the CDMRP eReceipt System (<https://cdmrp.org/>) and (2) application submission through Grants.gov (<http://www.grants.gov/>).

Submission of the same research project to different funding opportunities within the same program and fiscal year is prohibited. The Government will reject duplicative applications.

A. Where to Obtain the Application Package

To obtain the complete application package, including all required forms, perform a Grants.gov (<http://www.grants.gov/>) basic search using the Funding Opportunity Number: W81XWH-12-OCRP-TIA.

B. Pre-Application Submission Content and Form

All pre-application components must be submitted by the PI through the CDMRP eReceipt System (<https://cdmrp.org/>). Because the invitation to submit an application is based on the contents of the pre-application, investigators should not change the title or research objectives after the pre-application is submitted.

PIs and organizations identified in the application should be the same as those identified in the pre-application. If any changes are necessary after submission of the pre-application, the PI must contact the CDMRP Help Desk at help@cdmrp.org or 1-301-682-5507.

The pre-application consists of the following components, which are organized in the CDMRP eReceipt System by separate tabs (refer to the General Application Instructions, Section II.B., for additional information on pre-application submission):

- Application Information – Tab 1
- Application Contacts – Tab 2
- Collaborators and Conflicts of Interest (COI) – Tab 3

FY12 OCRP Integration Panel (IP) members should not be involved in any pre-application or application. For questions related to IP members and pre-applications or applications, refer to Section IV.C., Withdrawal, or contact the CDMRP Help Desk help@cdmrp.org or 1-301-682-5507.

III. APPLICATION REVIEW INFORMATION

A. Application Review and Selection Process

All applications are evaluated by scientists, clinicians, and consumer advocates using a two-tier review process. The first tier is a peer review of applications against established criteria for determining technical merit. The second tier is a programmatic review that compares applications to each other and makes recommendations for funding to the Commanding General, U.S. Army Medical Research and Materiel Command (USAMRMC), based on technical merit, the relevance to the mission of the DoD and OCRP and the specific intent of the award mechanism. The highest-scoring applications from the first tier of review are not automatically recommended for funding. Additional information about the two-tier review process used by the CDMRP can be found at <http://cdmrp.army.mil/about/fundingprocess>.

All CDMRP review processes are conducted confidentially to maintain the integrity of the merit-based selection process. Each level of review requires panelists to sign a non-disclosure statement attesting that application and evaluation information will not be disclosed outside the panel. Violations of the non-disclosure statement can result in the dissolving of a panel(s) and other corrective actions. Organizational personnel and PIs are prohibited from contacting persons involved in the review process to gain protected evaluation information or to influence the evaluation process. Violations of these prohibitions will result in the administrative withdrawal of the organization's application. Violations by panelists or PIs that compromise the confidentiality of the review process may also result in suspension or debarment of their employing organizations from Federal awards. Furthermore, the unauthorized disclosure of confidential information of one party to another third party is a crime in accordance with Title 18 United States Code 1905.

B. Application Review Criteria

- 1. Peer Review: To determine technical merit, all applications will be evaluated according to the following scored criteria, which are of equal importance:
 - Principal Investigator
 - How the PI's record of accomplishment demonstrates outstanding ability as an independent and visionary scholar and investigator, and as a highly recognized leader in his/her field.
 - How the research team's background and expertise are appropriate.

- How the application reflects the PI's creativity and innovative thinking, and supports the likelihood that the PI could have a significant impact on ovarian cancer.
- How the PI's commitment to this award is sufficient.
- How the PI describes his/her commitment of at least 25% effort to ovarian cancer research and the commitment of his/her research team to ovarian cancer research during the award period.
- How the PI will mentor a designated junior scientist from his/her research team in ovarian cancer.
- How the plan describing how the PI and the research team will serve as ambassadors for the OCRP and interact with the ovarian cancer survivor and research communities demonstrates both passion and commitment to ovarian cancer.
- Vision and Innovative Research Ideas
 - How the PI's vision of the critical approaches reflects breakthrough thinking and may result in discoveries that ultimately solve the major problems or barriers in ovarian cancer.
 - How the PI's ideas reflect original and innovative thinking.
 - How the PI's research goals and vision suggest innovative, creative thinking that is not hindered by either tradition or convention.
 - How the PI communicates a clear vision of what he/she hopes to accomplish during the award period.
 - How the proposed research ideas are paradigm-shifting or challenge current assumptions and may have an impact on ovarian cancer research and patient care.

In addition, the following unscored criteria will also contribute to the overall evaluation of the application:

- Budget
 - Whether the budget is appropriate for the proposed research and within the limitations of this Program Announcement/Funding Opportunity.
- Application Presentation
 - To what extent the writing, clarity, and presentation of the application components influenced the review.

- 2. Programmatic Review: To determine the application's relevance to the mission of the DoD and OCRP, as well as to make funding recommendations, the following criteria are used by programmatic reviewers:

Stage 1: During the first stage of programmatic review, applications will be selected for the second stage using the following criteria:

- Ratings and evaluations of the peer reviewers
- Programmatic relevance
- Relative innovation
- Relative impact on ovarian cancer
- Adherence to the intent of the award mechanism

Stage 2: During the second stage of programmatic review, the following criteria will be used:

- Understanding the major issues or barriers in ovarian cancer
- Articulation of a revolutionary vision with a high potential for impact on ovarian cancer
- Leadership capabilities to form collaborations and partnerships and to mentor junior scientists that will significantly impact ovarian cancer
- Articulation of commitment and passion to eliminating ovarian cancer
- Leadership skills to instill passion and commitment in the research team and to serve as an ambassador for ovarian cancer in the ovarian cancer survivor and research communities

C. Recipient Qualification
